Mr. Dzan Ta of Repro Products, Inc. Joins Autodesk® Expert Elite Program

Atlanta, GA, September 4, 2015 – Repro Products, Inc., headquartered in Smyrna, GA, today announced Dzan Ta has been selected to join the Autodesk Expert Elite Program for his knowledge and expertise in use of multiple Autodesk software products such as Building Design Suite Ultimate, Revit®, AutoCAD®, A360, etc.

Autodesk's Expert Elite Program recognizes individual community members who have made extraordinary contributions with helping the community by sharing knowledge, providing community leadership, and exemplifying an engaging style of collaboration that drives a healthy and valuable Autodesk community. These members share their knowledge and insight with their community, as well as help Autodesk by representing the voice of the customer back to the company.

Bob Feldberg, President of Repro Products, Inc., said: "Enabling our customers to perform at the highest level is one of the guiding principles of our organization. The achievement of Dzan Ta of the Autodesk Expert Elite designation is an example of the commitment of our employees to our customers' needs."

"The goal of the Expert Elite program is to empower our super-users to better share their knowledge, assist their peers, and support the Autodesk community," said Katinka Sante, Expert Elite Program Manager, Autodesk. "We have selected Mr. Dzan Ta because of his regular and responsive participation in Autodesk discussion forums and social media channels, advanced knowledge of Autodesk and its products, and leadership in the user community."
